

We who live in Indiana are totally committed to our current law that allows the state to maintain a "no-call" list. We would NOT like to see the FCC reduce its effectiveness, and request that the agency exempt our state from any weaker form of regulation.